Grace V. Perry, OTD, OTR/L, is an occupational therapy practitioner working full-time in the inpatient rehabilitation setting for Kaweah Health Rehabilitation Hospital in Visalia, CA. She treats adult clients with a variety of neuro-muscular and physical impairments, including SCI, post-stroke, amputation, and TBI. Perry has implemented use of motion-controlled video games within her practice and continues to incorporate new technologies into treatment. She earned a post-professional doctorate in 2023 from Creighton University.

Kelsey Trout, MOT, OTR/L, is an occupational therapy practitioner working full time in the inpatient adult settings including acute, inpatient rehabilitation, and sub-acute, for Kaweah Health in Visalia, CA. She earned an MOT from the University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences in 2021. Trout's professional interests vary to meet the diverse needs of the adult population she serves, but she always enjoys introducing video games into interventions.
