1:30pm–3:00pm

But I Thought I Was Being Ethical! (1.5 PDUs) 23

Lora Woo, OTD, OTR/L

Today's healthcare environment presents ethical challenges that practitioners may not be aware of as problematic. Heighten your awareness of possible ethical dilemmas and how to handle these situations through discussion of case scenarios.

Open to students.

1:30pm–3:00pm

Assertiveness and Self-advocacy Training for Health Promotion (1.5 PDUs) 24

Rebecca Cunningham, OTD, OTR/L; Samantha Valasek, OTD, OTR/L

Everyday health promotion often requires individuals to effectively request and access necessary supports and resources. Learn about assessments, tools, and interventions to help your clients strengthen assertive communication and self-advocacy skills.

1:30pm–4:45pm

Avoiding Compassion Fatigue and Burnout in Occupational Therapy Practice (3 PDUs) 25

Donna Costa, DHS, OTR/L (NV), FAOTA

The occupational therapy profession is full of rewards, but not without stress. Concepts of compassion fatigue and burnout and the mechanisms by which they develop are important for the practitioner to understand. Helping our clients live life to the fullest requires practitioners to develop a plan for professional self-care.

1:30pm–4:45pm

Occupational Therapy's Role in Treating ADHD in College (3 PDUs) 26

Rashelle Nagata, OTD, OTR/L

Learn how occupational therapy practitioners address the cognitive, psychosocial, academic, and lifestyle impairments that college students with ADHD encounter. Discussion will provide specific interventions to improve self-care routines, time management, and stress management for college students.

Executive Functions: Overcoming Threats and Creating Evidence-based Interventions (2 PDUs) 27

Natalie Ang, OTD, OTR/L, HTC, PAM, CLIPP, CEAS, CAS

Executive functions will be explained and how they relate to daily occupational functioning. Understand how medical, physical, and social conditions negatively impact executive functions. Learn strategies to improve hot and cold executive functions and create custom interventions.

2:45pm–4:45pm

Mindful Therapy: Exploring Mindfulness Techniques for School Participation (2 PDUs) 28

Rachelle Murphy, DHSc, OTR/L

Mindfulness targets the attention and social-emotional issues that create barriers to successful student participation in school settings. Attendees will be provided with evidence and techniques supporting mindfulness-based interventions for application in the school system.

STUDENT TRACK ONLY

2:45pm–4:45pm

Professionalism: Translating Classroom Discussion into Real World Practice and Benefit . . . 29

Moderators Alison George, MS, OTR/L, and Lina Awshee, COTA/L, OTAC Student Leadership Committee Co-chairs

Come hear from current OTAC leaders on their path from students to leaders in the largest state occupational therapy association in the country. California is the sixth largest economy in the world and as such California, U.S, and world citizens keep a watchful eye on California leaders in many professions, including and in particular healthcare. As you look forward to successfully practicing occupational therapy, it is imperative that you also explore paths to leading the profession in its second century. Included in this presentation timeframe is an opportunity for informal 30-minute networking with the panelists.

3:15pm–4:45pm

Putting the OT Community's Unique Knowledge and Capacities to Work to Reduce the Trauma of Disasters (1.5 PDUs) 30

Mary Evert, MBA, OTR/L, FAOTA, SCD

Natural disasters in 2017 cost the United States an unprecedented $36 billion, which resulted in 362 deaths and untold numbers with property loss, injuries, and trauma. The need for preparedness and relief mobilization has never been greater. The occupational therapy community has a unique knowledge of the client's capacity and needs for leading high quality, meaningful lives as well as an understanding of accessibility issues. Occupational therapy practitioners' roles and practices within an emergency/disaster management framework plus strategies to improve professional and team competencies in this critical area of client safety, risk reduction, recovery, and quality of life will be explored.

Open to students.

3:15pm–4:45pm

Addressing Sexual Health in Occupational Therapy (1.5 PDUs) 31

Marissa Marchioni, OTD, OTR/L; Rebecca Cunningham, OTD, OTR/L; Samantha Valasek, OTD, OTR/L

Attend this presentation to learn about models and strategies for addressing sexuality. Improve your comfort level and knowledge base as we examine applications of practice models and explore invention strategies via case studies.

5:00pm–6:00pm

Legislative Reception C

Join OTAC Region 1, OTAC leaders, and OTAC Advocacy and Government Affairs Committee as they welcome an elected official and hear from her/him on top priorities for this very busy legislative session. Members...You all know a colleague who is not a member.

Nonmembers...You all know a colleague who is a member, or two nonmembers can join together and take advantage of the "2-for-1" registration rate. So, members and nonmembers, get together and take advantage of this "2-for-1" offer.

*Student rate includes only STUDENT TRACK on Saturday and any session on Sunday; no other activities.

Special "2-for-1" Two-Day Registration Rate—How It Works.

Registration forms and completed membership application form(s) for both individuals must be faxed, emailed or mailed together to the OTAC office and reach the office no later than March 14, 2018. "New Member" means an individual who has not been a member since February 2016. Two nonmembers may join and attend together and each receives this discount. This discount is in lieu of any other incentives/rewards offered by OTAC. Students can partner with another student to qualify. OT/OTAs cannot partner with a student for the discount.

ABOUT YOUR DUES

Contributions or gifts to the Occupational Therapy Association of California (OTAC) are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. However, they may be tax deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses except that portion which is allocated to association lobbying activities. OTAC estimates that the non-deductible portion of your OTAC dues — the portion which is allocable to lobbying — is 5%. Five dollars of your dues (except Corporate) is a voluntary contribution to OTAC’s Political Action Committee and may be deducted from the amount due.

PRACTICE AREAS
