

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY

School of Allied Health Professions

Are you an OTP that works with children 0 to 3? We want you!

Exploring the Role of Occupational Therapy Practitioners with Children and Families

Purpose: The purpose of this graduate student research study is to explore how Occupational Therapy Practitioners (OTPs) in Early Intervention address the needs of the family and child when implementing services.

Am I eligible?

- Currently licensed and practicing OTRs and COTAs between the ages of 18-75
- Practicing in Early Intervention in the United States

How long will it take?

- Complete a 5-minute online survey
- An option to participate in a 30-minute virtual interview

IF INTERESTED, START SURVEY:

Compensation?

- There will be no compensation for involvement in this research study

CONTACT:

Principal Investigator:

Arezou Salamat OTD, OTR/L
asalamat@llu.edu

Graduate Student:

Alyson Lopez-Colin OTS
alopezcollin@students.llu.edu

Sponsor: LLU Occupational Therapy Department

APPROVED

By LLUH IRB: 5220397 - 12/26/2022 at 7:38 am, Dec 27, 2022