Unpacking Uncertainty: Professional Perspectives and Resources for Communities Impacted by Immigration and New Legislation (1.5 PDUs)

Tuesday, August 19, 2025 | 6:30pm – 8:00pm | Virtual

This 90-minute session panel will explore the impact of recent immigration enforcement and new federal legislation on various professional sectors and communities in California. Panelists will share personal and workplace experiences, provide resources, and discuss collaborative strategies to support affected individuals and communities. A Q&A will follow.

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Examine the broad impacts of recent immigration enforcement and legislation on communities and professional sectors in California.
- Summarize key insights and lived experiences shared by panelists related to immigration-related and legislative challenges.
- Identify general strategies and available resources to support individuals and communities affected by immigration enforcement and new legislation.

Announcement of panelists coming soon!
