An OT happy hour!

Building Bridges for Evidence-Based Practice

Moderator: Emily Sweiss, PhD, OTR/L

Bring your favorite beverage and your burning questions on this topic to this casual Zoom happy hour.

If you are a clinician or student with questions about what research evidence is out there to support your practice, this event is for you! If you are a researcher wondering how to tailor your work to best support your clinical colleagues, this event is also for you!

We'll be sharing ideas and building partnerships to fill the gaps in research evidence that applies to clinical practice.

See you there!
